TO NORTH-LAST WASHINGTON—This subdivision is made in accordance with the original plan of the city, K. L. M. 25th, 25th, and 35th streets running through the property. It is within 10 minutes walk of the H street cable line. Maryland avenue, when extended, will greatly shorten the distance. Lots average 24x138. This subdivision is nearer to the Capitol than Dupout Circle, where ground sells at $10 per square foot. We have decided to let a few lots go at $400 each, and accept $10 down and $10 per month, without interest, furnishing abstract and deed. Call for plat and other information, and let us drive you out. Considering location, rearness to center of city, and size of lots, this is the cheapest property on the market to-day either for home sites or speculation. JOHN P. WAGGAMAN, 700 14th st., upstairs no2-2 wks.

WASHINGTON NEGRO CAPTURED. He Was Rifling a Cash Drawer in a Baltimore Confectionery Store. Baltimore, Nov. 9.—Robert Roy, who said he was from Washington, was ar-rested here yesterday. The police think they have made an important capture and believe that he is wanted in Washington and other cities on charges of burgiary. With the nerve seldom shown in women, Mrs. Dora Stoize, who keeps a confectionery store at No. 688 Columbia avenue, grappled with a burly negro whom she found behind her counter yesterday morning riffing her cash drawer.

L. Stoize was attending to household duties in a rear room. Hearing a noise in the store, she went to investigate and saw the man behind the counter. Without a moment's hesitation, she ran and grabbed him. She asked what he was doing there. him. She asked what he was doing there.

He replied, "none of your d—business," and struck Mrs. Stolze in the breast. She bravely held on to the man and he struck her in the face. Nothing daunted, the plucky woman clung to her prisoner.

The two wrestled, and finally the strength of the brute overpowered the woman, and the was dragged into the street. Here tha of the brute overpowered the woman, and she was dragged into the street. Here the fight was continued by the negro. Mrs. Stolze was tossed into the mud and her apparel was sadly disarranged.

The man had become almost exhausted and his vest was torn when Henry Stolze, the husband, who had been working in the yard, hearing the noise, approached with a large butcher knife and rushed to his wife's assistance.

The man, with a last powerful effort, broke away from his captor and started to run, followed by the infuriated husfrom sheer exhaustion. He picked up a cobblestone and threatened to brain his pursuer if he came any nearer, but the sight of the formidable-looking kaife, which Stolze threatened to use in his cowardly heart, had a quieting effect and the negro was soon subdued.

Justice Schenkel imposed a fine of $25 and costs, and sentenced Roy to jail for thirty days for assaulting Mrs. Stolze, and tering the store with intent to steal.

To Unveil Their Monument.

The Woman's Relief Corps, Department of Maryland, are to unveil their monumernt to the unknown dead at Loudoup Park Cemetery at Baltimore in the asternoon of Thanksgiving Day, and have invited the Grand Army of the Republic and Woman's Relief Corps of the District of Columbia to join with them in the ceremonies.
